SENATOR CLARK CLOSE TO DEATH BY DROWNING

Carriage in Which the Millionaire Montana Mine Owner Is Riding Breaks Through Ice and He Is Carried Under.

RESCUED FROM GRAVE PERIL
BY ONE OF HIS COMPANIONS.

Clothes Frozen on Him During Twelve-Mile Ride to His Private Car—Wife and Daughter with Him, but Are Unharmed.

TRINIDAD, Col., April 6.—Former United States Senator William A. Clark, of Montana, narrowly escaped death twenty miles west of here to-day when his carriage crashed through the ice of a river he was crossing and he was swept by the stream under the ice.

Senator Clark did not have an opportunity to jump when the horses broke through and pulled the vehicle after them. His companions jumped and landed safely where the ice was thick. Then one of the party was let down through the ice by his heels and managed to get hold of the struggling millionaire.

Mr. Clark was badly bruised and suffering severely from chill. There was another carriage in the prospecting party. Mr. Clark was taken to his private car and put to bed. He has contracted a severe cold and is under the care of a physician.

Before reaching his private car the ex-Senator's clothing was frozen stiff. He stopped at a ranch to thaw out and then drove to his private car, which was twelve miles from the river where he plunged under the ice.

Mr. Clark is accompanied by his wife and daughter and several friends who are interested with him in Colorado coal properties. He will resume his trip to Los Angeles this evening if possible.

HORSES THOUGHT TROLLEY GONG WAS A FIRE SIGNAL

So They Made a Record
Runaway and Must Go Back to Duty.

Two fire horses gave an impromptu exhibition in the running line to-day that caused great excitement while it lasted. They were released only yesterday from the horse hospital at No. 23 West Ninety-ninth street. As soon as Battalion Chief Shea heard about their runaway feat he ordered them put back to regular duty.

The horses were hitched to an old hose cart and sent out in charge of Christopher Sullivan for a little exercise. They went right up on the bit as they passed out of the hospital stable and started through Ninety-ninth street toward the park.

Just as the horses were turned into Central Park West a motorman on a north-bound car banged the gong. It was music to the "convalescents." It would mean only one thing—fire. In an instant away they went up Central Park West with Sullivan tagging vainly at the bit and shouting warnings to all in their way.

Bicycle Policeman von Hartmann saw the runaway and made after them at his best pace. One Hundredth street Sullivan was knocked out of his seat, but escaped without injury. The runaway car solidified with a passing truck and then the horses pulled up. There was no one going to the fire with the horses.

DR. HAMILTON TO BE CALLED AS A WITNESS

Expert Will Go on Stand
Before Delmas Sums
Up Case.

Counsel for Harry K. Thaw, slayer of Stanford White, have now decided to call one or two and possibly three witnesses before Mr. Delmas begins his summing up. One of these will be Dr. Allan McLean Hamilton, so it is said to-day. Now that there is no longer danger of Thaw being sent to Matteawan Insane Asylum as insane, Dr. Hamilton will be asked to testify as to his opinion of Thaw's mental condition at the time of the killing of White.

Dr. Hamilton has already testified that he believes Thaw was insane on the night of the killing. He will be asked to testify to this fact again. The calling of Dr. Hamilton is regarded as a wise move on the part of the defense. The other witnesses to follow Dr. Hamilton are of minor importance and will simply be questioned regarding certain apparent discrepancies in the testimony of previous witnesses called by the prosecution and the defense. Immediately following the examination of the witnesses, which will begin on Monday morning, Mr. Delmas will make the summing-up speech for the defense. He is expected to speak the greater part of Monday and continue speaking for several hours on Tuesday. A verdict is looked for either Wednesday or Thursday unless the jury should fail to agree.

BY FRANK W. THORP.

BENNINGS RACE TRACK, April 6.—The Washington Nursery Stakes for two-year-olds was the stake feature at Bennings to-day which drew out a large crowd in spite of the weather, which made a remarkable change last night. Yesterday it was summer like. To-day the chill winds brought out heavy coats once more. The crowd enjoyed the sport nevertheless for the fields were of good size, the contestants keen and the speculation brisk.

The Chevy Chase Steeplechase was also a feature which brought out a full delegation to the Club-house. The opening race had maidens riders, the first race of the season of this sort, where Cobleskill came on a long chance, who beat Woodcraft a length.

Azelina Outgamed Anna Smith. Anna Smith breezed to the front in the opening event, and made the running to-day. In the run home Azelina outgamed Anna Smith and won in a drive by three-quarters of a length from Anna Smith, who beat Jack McKee two lengths.

Billy Hibbes by Six Lengths. Matches Mary broke in front in the Nursery Stakes, but was outrun by Billy Hibbes, who opened up a gap of a half a dozen lengths, an advantage which the others could never overcome. Billy Hibbes won easily by a half dozen lengths from Cobleskill, a long chance, who beat Woodcraft a length.

Cobleskill Easy Winner. Cobleskill rushed to the front in the third race, and was followed by Lucy Strome, Canvass and Isadore Hirsch. They held this order to the finish, where Cobleskill came on and won easily by four lengths from Pina and Needles, who beat Grumbiling Soph two lengths for the place.

TOLD JUDGE HE WAS ROCKEFELLER'S SPY.

Bergusso, Who Also Said He Represented Belmont and Harriman, Sent to Bellevue.

Peter Bergusso, who informed Magistrate Finette that he was a secret agent and spy for John D. Rockefeller, August Belmont, E. H. Harriman and Jacob Schiff, was arraigned in the Harlem Court to-day, charged with a ruinous amount of eating in the restaurant of Herbert Mundorf, of No. 1487 Third avenue.

Mundorf charged that Bergusso ate four breakfasts in his place yesterday evening and paid for none of them. He said that he told the man some time ago that he could run up a bill, but he had no idea that he was possessed of such an astonishing appetite. Mundorf also charged that Bergusso had acted queerly, endeavoring for more than an hour to get Mr. Rockefeller on the telephone.

When the prisoner was asked for an explanation he began to rave and dance about before the bench. He was taken to Bellevue.
